

Information for Public Requests to View Files and Request Copies

To view a case file online:

Visit our website at www.sb-court.org

Click on Online Services then click on Access Case Information and Document Sales

To view a case file in person:

Visit the Court district where the case was filed and/or heard. In larger court districts, the files are kept in the clerk's office area called "Document Control". In the smaller districts you may need to go to the clerk's window for assistance. Note: Some files are not located on-site. Contact the clerk's office of the court where the case was filed or heard for information. Older files may be housed off-site. The clerk will have to order the file for you and it will be delivered to the Court district to view. Please allow up to a week for the file to be delivered.

Due to COVID-19 Health and Safety measures court files may not be available for viewing. Contact the clerk's office of the court where the case was filed or heard for further information.

Confidential Documents:

Some files and documents are confidential by statute. Please have your driver's license or another government issued photo identification to show the clerk. The clerk will verify that you are a party authorized to view the court file or document. Due to COVID-19 Health and Safety measures court files may not be available for viewing and request for copies from your court file must be completed in writing. Contact the clerk's office of the court where the case was filed or heard for further information. When requesting a copy from a confidential case include a copy of your driver's license or another government issued photo identification to the copy request form.

Due to the confidentiality of Juvenile Delinquency and Dependency cases, these types of cases have special requirements for viewing. Access to juvenile court case files is strictly limited by the provisions of Welfare and Institutions Code Sections 827-827.10. All parties requesting to view a juvenile case file must show identification as proof that they have standing as a party in that case or that they are attorney of record. All others must complete and file form JV-570 Request for Disclosure of Juvenile Case File <http://www.sb-court.org/Locations/JuvenileCourts.aspx>

To request copies by mail:

If you cannot access the court's case information on line at www.sb-court.org, send a request by mail to the district where the file is located. Include as much information about the case as you can (names, case number, date of filing) and list what document(s) you would like copied. Enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for the return of the copies. If you do not enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, the clerk will charge you for the envelope and postage. You will need to contact the court district <http://www.sb-court.org/Locations.aspx> to get an estimate of the fees for copying and/or certification and information on how to pay those fees.

For Family Law and Child Support copy request you may submit your request using Family Law/Child Support Copy Request Form located under local forms of our website at www.sb-court.org/forms-and-rules/san-bernardino-county-local-forms

It is against the law to steal, remove, secrete, destroy, mutilate, deface, alter or falsify court records. When viewing files you may not remove files from the designated area and control of the clerk. You may not remove documents from the court file.

Copy Costs:

Cost to purchase copies of documents from the court file is 50¢ (fifty cents) per side of page copied. Cost for certification of court documents is $40.00 per document except for family law judgments. Cost of certified copy of a family law judgment is $15.00. A large copy request will take additional time to process. A work order will be completed, the fees calculated and you will be asked to pay for the copies at the time of the order. The clerk will tell you when the copy order will be ready for pick up or you may provide a self-addressed, postage stamped envelope for mailing with the correct postage. Due to COVID-19 Health and Safety measures to request copy from your court case you must completed in writing and mailed to the district your case file is located, or fax to the district your case file is located or place the written request in the drop-bin outside the courthouse your case file is located.
