Problem-solving Courts, such as Shelter Court and Veterans Treatment Court, serve as a key tool in responding to the legal barriers that people experiencing homelessness, substance use and other disorders often face. These programs offer alternatives to traditional plea structures and coordinating rehabilitative services as well as connecting individuals to community resources to help increase the quality of life for those served through our programs.

For any questions regarding these events, or to RSVP to attend, please contact the Court's Public Information Office at: Courts-pio@sb-court.org.
