SAN BERNARDINO, CA— San Bernardino Superior Court (SBSC) is pleased to announce the selection of Anthony Radogna as the court's newest commissioner. Mr. Radogna will be officially sworn in on Monday, October 9, 2023, and will begin his new assignment in the Family Law Division.

Mr. Radogna was previously an Investigator for the State Bar of California's Office of Chief Trial Counsel between 2006 and 2011, and has since then continued his legal career in private practice. He has also been a Pro Tempore Judge for various Superior Courts in California since 2019. In 2020, Mr. Radogna was added a member of the State Bar's Judicial Nominees Committee, which assists the Governor in the judicial selection process.

Mr. Radogna graduated in 2001 with a Bachelor of Science in Business from Cal Poly Pomona. He received his Juris Doctorate from La Verne Law School and became a licensed attorney in 2008. He also received his Master of Laws in Criminal Law and Practice from Southwestern Law School in 2013.

Superior Court Commissioners hear matters including, but not limited to, family law, probate, small claims, unlawful detainers (eviction), child support, domestic violence, civil harassment, traffic, and criminal matters. Commissioners must be active members in good standing with the State Bar of California, and be admitted to practice law in California for at least ten years.
